THE GREATEST care should be taken in what we eat and drink, yet we are too often indifferent and careless. notwithstanding health depends on what we eat and drink.

In regard to drink nothing but the best should he taken. It costs no more than the indifferent quality, if people would only ask for what they know is the best Old Scotch Whisky is the most wholesome beverage yet known Mackie's Scotch Whisky gives an undoubted guarantee to those who are not judges of quality.

CITY AWALYST'S LABORATORY. 138 BATH STREET, CLASCOW, 8th October, 1906.

I hereby certify that I have taken samples of every vatting of Mackle's White Horse Cellar Blend of Scotch Whisky used in bottling during the month of September, and the results of my analyses indicate that it conforms to the standard for Pot Still Scotch Whisky set up in the London case. I am also of opinion that it is an old Whisky of excellent quality and flavour, which has been well matured in wood.

JOHN CLARK, Ph.D., F.C.S., F.I.C., Public Analyst for the City of Glasgon and the Counties of Lanark, Renfrew, &c.

ENGLISH COMPANIES IN EGYPT.

Persons interested in the management of the many companies registered in England, but whose sphere of operations is in Egypt, should keep an eye on the companies bill. It is said that no less than two hundred and fifty companies, doing business in Egypt and the Sudan, are English so far as registration and legal liabilities are concerned. Whether this estimate be exaggerated we cannot say, but there are a great number of English companies in Egypt, and they must come within the pur view of the Companies Bill as soon as 'it be comes law. The rapid progress that has been made with this Bill has been one of the features of the Session. At one time it was thought that the bill was not seriously intended to pass this Session, and it was for that reason, it will be recalled, that Lord Avebury introduced his own measure dealing with one or two questions affecting the practical working of the company world. These points, however, were contained in the Government measure introduced immediately afterwards. Its rapid progress in the House of Lords has given the bill a workmanlike appearance, and with the third reading of the measure con-cluded on Thursday last, it is hoped that its progress through the House of Commons will not be delayed. It is not at all a measure likely to arouse opposition, and the new provisions, if practical, are not particularly controversial, so that it is expected that the measure will become law this Session without any difficulty. In one direction the new Companies Bill must be welcomed; it takes a very small step, in the direction of strengthening the hands of auditors, the only real safeguard the investor has. Highly important in this respect is Clause 24 Section 4. This makes it necessary that if any other is to be elected auditor than the auditor retiring his nomination must be made to the company not less than fourteen days before the annual meeting, and the company must send such notice to every shareholder at least seven days before the meeting. The only objection from the point of view of honest company management is that it prebably does not leave the shareholders with quite sufficient notice, but it is a step in the right direction. It will do something to support auditors who have had to make themselves unpleasant for a directorate that wishes to eject them. It will allow auditors some little time to circularise on their own behalf, and we trust that if occasion arises they will not be slow to avail themselves of it. As things are at present, the auditor is too much under the heel of the directorate. This point should be carefully borne in mind by the members of the boards of directors of Anglo-Egyptian companies for if it be neglected considerable trouble will

Apropos of Companies, a recent fine inflicted on an English company in Japan affords an interesting object lesson for Egypt. Besides Egypt and other parts of the Ottoman Empire, Capitulations exist in China, Japan and elsewhere. Japan, however, is stronger than Egypt and is determined to prevent the scandal of limited liability companies, whose field of operations is in Japan, being immune from interference in this respect. His Majesty's Embassy at Tokio reports a decision of some importance to British companies doing business in Japan, which was recently given in the case of a company whose head office is at Hong Kong. This company was prosecuted for not complying with certain regulations of Japanese Company Law, and was fined under Article 258 of the Commercial Code, which runs as follows. "A foreign company which sets up a principal office in Japan, or which makes it its principal object to do business in Japan, must, even though it is formed in a foreign country, comply with the same provisions as though it were formed in Japan."

It is a pity that the Egyptian Government cannot enact some such regulation, for how-ever wise may be the provisions of the English Companies acts, it is obvious to most people that we require here a good deal less latitude than is permitted at home.

Presence of mind is the quality which, above all others, the military man should cultivate. "Captain, we are entirely out of ammunition." said an orderly sergeant to his commander on a field day. "What—entirely out of ammunition?" exclaimed the captain. "Yes, entirely out," was the reply. "Then cease firing," said the captain.

The meeting of the general committee for the institution of a memorial to Lord Cromer will take place this afternoon at 5 o'clock at the Alexandria Municipality.

Owing to the very many serious accidents due to persons jumping off the trams in Cairo while in motion the Company has decided to issue notices calling attention to the danger of such proceedings.

Merse Matroub

The construction of the telegraph line, which is to unite Alexandria with Mersa Matrouh, is being pushed on through the Mariout district. A credit of L.E. 7,000 has been opened for the purpose, of which L.E. 2,029 has been expended.

In vesterday's issue of our local contem porary, "La Réforme", there was a very justinable complaint against the manners of one of the staff of the telephone employes, whose rudeness has led to numerous complaints. It is to be hoped that the Telephone Company will see that some punishment is inflicted on this person, as rudeness in such a case is quite inexcusable.

The undermentioned officers of the Egyptian Army have passed the Preliminary Arabic Examination held recently:—Bimbashi Harvey, Deputy Assistant Adjutant General, Bimbashi Collum, Department of Supplies, Bimbashi Stracey, 2nd Battalion, Bimbashi Law, Department of Stores, Bimbashi Coke, 10th Sudanese, Bimbashi Mackintosh, Department of Works, Bimbashi Orr-Ewing, 3rd Battalion, Bimbashi B. #### COLLAPSE OF A HOUSE

TWENTY PERSONS BURIED THE OFFICIAL "REPORT"

A terrible catastrophe occurred yesterday evening in Alexandria. About half past eight a house in the Rue Batouta, off Sisters' Street, collapsed and buried in its ruins over twenty Europeans who inhabited it. The death roll to be attributed to this disaster is not as yet known, but the body of one dead man has been recovered and five persons, whose death is almost certain, remain under the ruins at the time of writing these lines; in addition to this 17 persons are lying in hospital more or less seriously injured. The house, which had a frontage of more than twenty metres and was three stories high, was built only a year ago and we have been informed that its collapse i due to it being built upon, old and unsound foundations; for this we cannot vouch, but at the same time it is not an improbable explanation of the disaster. The importance of the lesson afforded by this disaster cannot be exaggerated and we cannot but blame the official authorities for permitting the erection of unstable buildings We do not wish to accuse the authorities of indifference in such matters, but we desire to by offering to the Press such an inexact ac-count of the disaster that we refuse to publish it. We have ourselves seen that two stories of the house have collapsed, whereas the official re port says "A roor of a house in the Labban quarter collapsed." Ten persons are reported officially to have been rescued, while we learned at least two hours before taking the report that 17 were lying in hospital, and the report con cludes "it is hoped that there are no more persons under the ruins," when it was known by the public that others still remained either to be rescued or recovered dead.

We have also been asked to protest against the attitude of the police at the time of the collapse. We are informed that several Europeans volunteered to assist in the rescue of the unfortunate victims, but were driven back by blows from the shawishes' batons and with imprecations which we cannot print. We do not vouch for the accuracy of this, but at the same time we have no reason to doubt the good faith of our informants, one of whom is a compositor of the "Egyptian Gazette".

We desire to bestow the greatest upon the "Società dei Soccorsi d'Urgenza," who arrived on the scene of the disaster in the least possible time and did their utmost to give first aid to the injured, whom they afterwards took to the hospital. We must also comment upon the earnest efforts of Hopkinson Bey, Cobbe Bey, Mr Lloyd Davies, and others, to effect a speed rescue of the victims as soon as they arrived

Messrs. Almagia brought all their labourers from the harbour to clear away the ruins, which are being excavated with great care as it is known that victims still are buried and perhaps alive. The Italian Consular author ities are superintending the work. ities are superintending the work.

A peculiar coincidence is to be noted in reference to the tragedy, which in its way is grimly humorous. Yesterday afternoon the Public Works Committee of the Alexandria Municipality examined the projected regula tions in regard to buildings. It was decided to submit the scheme at the next meeting of the Municipal Commission.

Prince Aziz Pasha Hassan is especially to be thanked for his encouragement of this most generally popular of maritime sports.

As president of the Khedivial Yacht Club he has greatly advanced the interest taken in yachting by residents in Egypt, and his sportsman-like nature is an incitement to continual progress in the class of yachts competing.

As a secure anchorage and a harbour adapted to cruising Alexandria has few, if any, rivals in the Mediterranean. The yachtsman is always sure of a steady breeze and compara tively smooth water. #### EGYPTIAN NATIONALISM.

POLICY OF SECRET SOCIETIES.

In our issue of Saturday last we reproduced a remarkable article from "Al Watan," the Coptic vernacular organ of Cairo, on the recent development of a dangerous symptom of Egyptian Nationalism, the growth of secret societies in this country. The Nationalist Press at-tempted to deny the charge. "Al Watan" in its issue of Tuesday last makes the following reply :-- As usual our last article on secret societies was quoted and contradicted by the Nationalist organs the day after its appearance. The contradiction took the familiar form of denying statements without proof, and of maligning the editor who writes our articles in English and Arabic on these subjects. In fact, personal and Arabic on these subjects. In fact, personal abuse and religious agitation are the only weapons wielded by these Nationalist writers in defense of their political principles. But we can afford to treat these tactics with the contempt they deserve.

Facts cannot, however, be denied with such ease, and the additional proofs published by us yesterday will leave no doubt that a form of secret societies for unpraiseworthy ends does exist in the land. A correspondent wrote to us from Alexandria that he saw a meeting of the nature we described, and that vulgar agitation against Europeans and Christians in general was the main object of that meeting. Others have written to our contemporary "Misr" from Upper Egypt confirming the same news. Yet our friends of Nationalist views deny the whole story as usual and call us traitors because we dare to reveal a sinister fact. We notice that these papers are almost reviling H. H. the Khedive now in answer to certain statements made by H. H. to Mr. Dicey and published by that gentleman, who is also called an enemy now, in the "Daily Telegraph" Mr. Dicey was until the other day one of the heroes worshipped by his present detractors because he had published a criticism of Lord Cromer's policy. But we had been under the impression that Nationalist plotters will draw the line at the name of the Khedive. How poor in prophecy and calculation we must be !

THE KHEDIVE.

The Khedive will leave Alexandria on the 25th June on the "Mahroussa" and will stop at Rhodes to see his daughter. His Highness will proceed thence to Constantinople were he will spend a week and will then go to Kissingen to take the waters. Fakhry Pasha, Ahmed Zeky Pasha and Izzet Bey will accompany the Khedive to Constantinople.

Sir Eldon Gorst had an interview with the Khedive in Ras-el-Tin Palace this morning.

Prince Aziz Pasha Hassan, was received in

THE MISSING DETACHMENT.

OFFICER'S BODY FOUND.

It is reported that the body of the officer Ali el Hassan, who was in command of the detachment of 25 men, which left Bir-Natron more than a month ago, has been discovered by one of the search parties. No particulars, by one of the search parties. No particulars, however, are as yet forthcoming as to exactly where the distressing discovery was made or as to the possible cause of death; but it is generally supposed that he must have died from exposure, and starvation. The fate of the remainder of the party is still uncertain but it is feared that the severe sandstorms, which have been raging in the district south of Abou Tabari must have caused sad havor in their ranks. The search is still being diligently con-

Bir Natron, which they left last month, is or the Forty Days Road (Darb el Arbain) from Darfour and Kordofan to Assiout, It is also called Bir Sultan and is in the heart of desert 283 miles west of Dongola. Here natron is found in a seam from half an inch to two inches thick. The "Sudan Times" of Thursday last says:-

"No new information has been received about the party of Camel Corps, which lost its way on the desert south of Abu Tabari. The party, we are told, were trying to make their way to comrades, when search parties were organized and sent out to look for them

ATTACKED BY BEDOUINS.

Further details of the remarkable attack on a stranded British steamer by Bedouins have come to hand. On April 4 last the steamer Kilburn left Barry for Japan, and on April 27 she ran ashore in the Red Sea, three days' steaming from Aden. One officer and several men put off in a small boat for that port, in order to try and obtain assistance, leaving the captain and the remainder of the crew board the wreck. The small boat safely reached Aden, whence a salvage steamer was immed iately despatched, but some days later the latter vessel returned, having failed to locate the position of the Kilburn.

Meanwhile, a large number of Bedouins had appeared on the shore near the stranded appeared on the shore near the stranded steamer, and their numbers growing stronger daily they at last determined to attack the depleted crew. Notwithstanding a gallant resistance, the British sailors were driven overboard by sheer weight of numbers, and had to take to their boats. They were afterwards picked up in the Red Sea by a salvage boat from Perim, where they were landed. The captain of the Kilburn has appealed to the naval authorities at Aden for protection while the salvage work is being undertaken.

EGYPT'S CENSUS.

EXTRAORDINARY MISTAKES.

Evidence is accumulating to show that the ecent census has been nothing more nor les than a farce. The most elementary qualifica tion of the officials employed in taking the census should have been that they were sufficiently instructed in the elementary prin ciples of arithmetic to do ordinary simpl addition. But they appear, so far at least as Alexandria is concerned, to have been quite unable to add. For example one hundred of the census books used in the enumeration of the population of Alexandria have been examined and in every one of these books there was a mistake in the addition. The total errors in these sixty books resulted in giving two thousand persons less than were actually enumerated. For the numbering of Alexandria thirty thousand of such books were employed at the last census, so if there were the same amount of errors in all of them, hundred books inspected, there is an actual shortage of no less than 60,000 in the reported population of Alexandria, solely due to mi takes in simple addition.

The shortage in the reported population from sheer slackness in not visiting houses, must amount to a far higher figure. On every hand evidence is forthcoming from well-known European residents of Alexandria and Cairo whose houses were never visited by the census enumerators. We could instance many flagrant cases of such omissions, but one will suffice to show the wilful neglect of the employés of the Census Department. The Alexandria head-quarters of the Eastern Telegraph Company is such a large building and is situated in such a central part of the city that it would be hought impossible to miss it. The telegraph office of the company is known to everybody, yet we are informed by the superintendent that he vas never asked by any employé of the Censu Department to fill in any paper or make any statement. Yet there are about thirty English men sleeping there every night. If such over sights were committed amongst the European inhabitants, who, after all, are easily reached the numbers of such oversights must have been plenteously multiplied in the case of the natives, who are by contrast difficult to locate. The figures belie themselves, too. Between 1882 and 1897 the population increased by 43 per cent. It is true that the first-named census was not absolutely accurate, but an increase of barely 15 per cent., as has been registered between 1897 and 1907, spread over a period when the European influx to Egypt has been enormous, and during which the prosperity of the country has been growing, must be, on the face of it, far below the mark. The Egyptians are essentially a prolific nation, which is one more argument for a larger increase in the population. The figures only show an increase of 70,000 and 61,000 in the population of Cairo and Alexandria respectively, the former numbering 40,000 and the latter 377,000 inhabitants Such increases are absurdly small ones, and taking a comparative statement of the total census this year and in 1897, in all its publish ed sections, one has to come to the conclusion that there is something wrong; If a census is to be of any use it must be ccurate as possible, and no doubt the fault lies with the Government, who, to economise, ap pointed as census-inspectors men already in the Government service, who had to do the work gratis. Of course, in a good many instan-ces, outside men were taken and paid for their services, but the greater part were unpaid. This would account for oversights and inac curate figures.

It is a pity that the Government did accept the offer of the Alexandria Municipalwhich undertook to carry out the census for this city for a total sum of L.E. 1,500. Thi amount was considered too dear, and the result has been that many people are wondering how it is that the municipal tax-collectors are able to ferret them out, while they were left severely alone by the officials of the census.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

THE FUTURE OF HELOUAN.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE "EGYPTIAN GAZETTE Sir,—Helouan, the only climateric centre in Egypt is renowned for its hot sulphur spring, its year deart air and its high level. The ts pure desert air and its high level. town with beautiful wide roads is built on the Mokattam Hill and commands a nice scenery of the desert, the Nile with the palm trees and the pyramids of Saakkarah and Guizeh.

For people suffering from rheumatism, chest r skin diseases Helouan is the only resort, as Helouan was rapidly progressing when the late Khedive Tewfick Pacha was living there, but his death affected it considerably as the late railway Company has since considerably slacked in their duties.

Several residents called the attention of the Company and appealed to the Government, and Lord Cromer, with the result that the concession, was transferred from the Helouan Railway Company to the Delta Light.

The Delta soon started improving the railway and in fact the line was doubled up to Courah, four new big first class and four second class carriages arrived, the stations have been nicely painted and supplied with nice flower

The waiting rooms have been properly fur nished and the number of trains has increased, as now there is an hour train ser-vice. The residents are feeling now more com-fortable and the railway receipts have increased 150% which is to be appreciated, and announces a very good future for Helouan. W will see before two years the population in-creasing from 7,000 to 20,000 if the railway continues the improvements.

In the beginning of last winter several residents had an interview with the Manager of the Helonan Railway, Capt. Adams, and asked the doubling of the line from Tourah to Helonan, the conversion of the steam power into electricity, renewal of the stock, the extension of the line to Berombol East of Atfih district and other improvements. The Manager promised to look into the matter and do al in his power for the comfort of the popula tion. At the end of the winter season Capt Adams saw that the doubling of the line would be convenient for the Company's interest and proposed to the Board the sanction of the nprovements mentioned.

In fact the Board accepted the proposal and wrote to the Ministry of Public Works to that effect. But as the total expenditure of L.E. 100,000 cannot be redeemed within the short time of the concession that still remains, more especially as L.E. 60,000 have already been spent a short time ago, the Company ask from the Government the extension of the concession for a sufficient length of time to allow them to redeem the sum they will spend on improvements.

When the Helouan residents saw that the railway has done all they could to meet their wishes, they have addressed a petition in triplicate to Sir Eldon Gorst, Sir W. Garstin and Sir Vincent Corbett requesting them to accept the Railway Company's scheme.

Sir Eldon Gorst replied to the undersigned that the Ministry of Public Works is now considering several proposals concerning the improvement of communications between Cairo and Helouan, and that our request will be forwarded also for consideration.

Hassan Bey Mazloum the Secretary of Sir Vincent Corbett replied in the latter name that all his efforts will be displayed for the benefit of the Helouan town.

Now I will detail what the Helouan residents

sk from the Government and the Railway Company:

From the Railway Company they ask :-1) The doubling of the line from Tourah to

2) The renewal of its rolling stock. 3) The conversion of steam power into

4) The departure of a train from each end every 1/2 hour (if possible every 15 m.)

5) The extension of the line up to Beremba

Atth District.

From the Government.

6) The extension of the Delta Railway concession to redeem the new capital required for improvements asked. 7) A road of 20 m. width from Cairo to Helouan, for which all land at St. George, will benefit. This road will increase the value of all pro perties and a tax may be imposed on same Several other Companies will also considerably benefit through this road, as the Delta Land Company, The Automobile Co., Helouan Improvement Co., The Automobile Club. This road will be the best promenade for Automobiles and carriages as it will run near the river and the scenery will be splendid.

8: To open a credit of 20 or 30,000 pounds for improvements in Helouan such as planting trees in the strees, making trottoirs, metalling the roads and building public gardens etc., all this to be completed within 2 or 3 years at the

It may be said that the Government cannot dispose of all the money required but there is such an extension of land belonging to the Government at Helouan and its surroundings and at Tourah and Meadi and certainly these improvements will increase the value of the land and by this way the Government will also largely share in the profits made through these

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL.

Prince Mohamed Aly Pasha, according to some local newspapers, is engaged to a daugh-ter of the Sultan. The rumour is absurd as the Princesses of reigning Moslem families when they marry are not allowed to leave the Capital.

Lord Cromer who is getting used to the change of climate and surroundings, is staying in the neighbourhood of Portland Place, but, owing to his health, is keeping very much aloof from social entertainments. His lordship will, according to present arrangements, remain in town till the middle of July, but he is as yet undecided whether he will spend the autumn in England or on the Continent. Lady Cromer's name appears constantly in the papers as attending social functions or first nights at the theatre, so Lord Cromer's friends in Egypt may feel assured that his lordship is going on satisfactorily.

A certain quantity of Lord Cromer's private effects have been offered for sale by auction; that is to say those of insufficient value to justify their transport to England. The sale commenced last Thursday and lasted for two days, and was attended by many hunters after souvenirs, not unmingled with bargain seekers, as the articles offered for sale were much to be desired. The sale took place at the house of Mr. Wilfred Carey, opposite the

The Sirdar and his suite arrived at Khartoum yesterday week by special train. During his short stay at Erkowit and Port Sudan, the Sirdar made a visit to Suakin, and the visit was made an occasion of festivity by the people of that city. The town was gaily decorated, and large crowds met his Excellency at the railway station. At the mudirieh offices his Excellency held a levee at which a large number of officers, officials, merchants and notables were present. In responding to an address of welcome, his Excellency said that Snakin had maintained and would continue to maintain its importance on account of its proximity to Port Sudan.

The marriage of Mr. S. R. P. Carver and Miss Gertrude Mary Malden will take place as originally arranged in Salisbury Cathedral on Saturday, the 1st proxo., but quite quietly owing to the recent death of Mr. S. H. Carver.

We regret to hear that the Rev. Peter Rudolph is seriously ill owing to inflammation of the liver, from which he has been suffering for the last three weeks.

Le rapport du Conseil d'Administration est des plus intéressants et fait ressortir qu'à l'augmentation du capital de la banque en 1906 est venue repondre un surcroit de progrès et d'activité dans toutes les branches d'affaires de cette institution de crédit. Le compte Caisse s'accroît de 217 millions, celui du portescuille de 598 millions.

I es comptes courants accusent un surplus de 274 millions.

Le Banco di Roma a largement profité dans le courant de l'année écoulée du mouvement des affaires en général en Italie, et tout en apportant un concours très efficace à la place en s'intéressant à toutes les opérations financières importantes, ne s'est point départi de na modération comme d'habitude et a continué s'assurer pour toute éventualité de disponibilités et de réserves largement supérieures à ses engagements.

L'ouverture du siège de Malte et de la succursale de Tripoli de Barbarie nécessités par les rapports commerciaux de l'Italie avec la Tripolitaine et l'Afrique du Nord, tout en étendant la sphére d'action du Banco di Roma, promet assurément d'apporter un surcroît de bénéfices pour l'avenir. Le Banco di Roma vient de fonder de nouvelles succursales en Italie et compte instituer trois agences à Bengasi, Derna et Homs. La Banque a pris part à la fondation de la Banque d'Abyssinie en 1905 et a cooperé en 1906 à la constitution de la Banque d'Etat du Maroc en souscrivant à une partie du capital de cette

NOTES BT CRITIQUES

Le Caire, Mercredi 29 Mai 1907. Les télégrammes de Londres annoncent une nouvelle élévation du taux d'escompte sur le marché libre : il a passé hier de 35,8 à 3/4 pour cent.

Au Stock Exchange, le Consolidé anglais a encore baissé de 1/8 à 84 3/8. L'Unifiée est restée invariée à 100 1/4. La National Bank a rétrogradé de 1/4 à 22 3/4. L'Agricole s'est eurée inchangée à 151)4, de même que la

Delta Light à 9 3/4.

A Paris, le Crédit Foncier Egyptien est resté à son cours précédent, soit 707. La Banque d'Athènes a perdu 1 franc à 127, Ici, le marché s'est laissé influencer par la mauvaise tenue des places dirigeantes d'Occident, par le renchérissement continu du loyer de l'argent à Londres, ainsi que par la baisse du coton. Aussi bien les cours se sont alourdis sur toute la ligne.

Il faut ajouter que les engagements et les ventes forcées qui ont contribué à accentuer la faiblesse. Heureusement, cette dépression ne semble: pas appelés à durer; il ne faut pas perdre de vue que le syndicat - commencera opérations vers la fin de la semaine. On peut donc rationnellement s'attendre à un proche raffermissement ou tout au moins à ce qu la réaction actuelle soit vite enrayée, La National Bank, que nous avions laissé hier à 22 7/8, a clôturé aujourd'hui à 22 9/16 3/8, soit en recul de plus de 1/4 de livre. L'A gricole a, d'autre part, perdu 1/8 à 8 5/16-3/8 Le Crédit Foncier a été délaissé à 705 l'obligation à lots nouvelle a faibli à 264.

Les Jouissances Eaux du Caire sont reve nues à 223. L'Anglo-American Nile a reculé à 3 3/4.

Les H. de Vries and Boutigny Ltd. ont été l'objet de nombreuses transactions à £ 1 1 32. La New Egyptian a été ramenée à 17 sh. 9-18. Les Markets ont été mieux tenus à 23

sh. 7 1 2. Nous venons d'exposer les cours de clôture des valeurs sur les quelles le marché est libre. Il y a eu, comme les jours précédents, un assez grand nombre de transactions, à des prix inférieurs, sur les titres régis par les cours de compensation fixés le 22 Avril dernier. Il est difficile de donner là dessus des indications positives, faute de cote officielle. Au demeurant, cette situation anormale est à la veille de prendre fin.

L'assemblée générale ordinaire de la Compagnie Immobilière d'Egypte est convoquée pour le 20 Juin prochain au siège social à Bruxelles.

A l'ordre du jour : rapports du conseil d'administration et des commissaires, examen et approbation des comptes du 7ème exercice clos an 31 Décembre 1906 ; fixation du dividende ; reponvellement du conseil d'administration : nomination d'un commissaire en remplacement de M. Th. M. Hegener, sortant et rééligible.

Le dépôt des titres en Egypte doit être effectué au plus tard le 10 Juin au siège social ou a l'Anglo-Egyptian Bank et à la Société Générale Egyptienne pour l'Agriculture et le Commerce.

Le bilan au 31 Décembre 1906 de la Cairo Electric Railways and Heliopolis Oases Co., qui a été approuvé par la première assemblée générale ordinaire des actionnaires tenue au Caire le 21 Mai courant, n'est pas accompagne d'un compte de profits et pertes, la Société venant de commencer ses opérations. Il en résulte que les dépenses de premier établissement effectuées à cette date s'élèvent à Frs. 1,384,913, déduction faite du produit des terrains réalisés au comptant ou à terme. Sont encore indisponibles des approvisionne ments et cautionnements pour Frs. 729,675.

Tout le reste de l'actif est disponible. On sait que le capital social était de Frs. 15,000,000 et qu'il a été doublé depuis la clôture de l'e

En dehors du capital, le bilan, renseigne Frs. 945,595 de créditeurs divers et 42,729 d'intérêts et d'escomptes qui sont un élément de profits et pertes.

A la 27ème assemblée générale ordinaire de la Land and Mortgage Co. of Egypt, qui a été tenue la semaine dernière à Londres, le président, Sir E Leigh Pemberton, a fait remarquer dans son discours, que, d'après des rensei-gnements méritant confiance, la récolte du coton en Egypte atteindra cette année 7,000,000 de cantars, ce qui constituera non seulement un record, mais encore un montant inattendu, et ce chiffre a son importance, car la hausse des prix du coton a pour effet d'accroître la valeur des terrains de culture.

Les recettes de la Delta Light Railways Co. pour la semaine au 18 Mai courant se sont élevées à L.E. 4,710 contre 3,597 en 1906, oit en augmentation de L.E. 1,113. Les recet tes totales depuis le 1er Avril 1907 se chiffrent par L.E. 33,294 contre 26,297 pour l'exercice précédent, soit en plus-value de L.E. 6,997.

COTTON CONGRESS.

GROWERS AND SPINNERS.

VIENNA, May 29.

The Cotton Congress discussed methods for strengthening direct relations between the actual growers in America and the spinners in Europe to the exclusion of market manipu-

The European delegates, while welcoming closer union, made it clear that they could not afford to slacken their efforts to extend cottongrowing to other countries. There was too much risk run in keeping the supply subject to the climatic conditions of one country. The Congress also discussed the badness of American baling, and resolved to favour legislation against placing extraneous matter in bales at

FEED-WATER HEATERS.

A German firm of engineers has recently completed a passenger engine for the Egyptian State Railways. A feed-water heater has been fitted, and as the engine has given good results as regards fuel consumption, it is suggested that these heaters would tend to allow of more economical working on passenger lines. In the United States the feed-water heater has been occasionally adopted, but it has never become popular. Probably it has been thought that the complications and repairs necessary were too numerous. The first part of the heater in the above-mentioned locomotive consists of a vertical cylinder, which is placed between the driving wheels on the same side as the pump. There is a nest of tubes inside the cylinder, and the feed-water circulates around these tubes; through the latter passes the exhaust steam from the pump. This pump draws water from the tender and forces it into the first part of the heater. After being warmed in the first heater the feed-water passes into another heater, which is situated just above the forward truck. And then on to a third heater, which is located on the left-hand side of the engine. The exhaust steam from the main steam chests exhausts into this part of the apparatus. The exhaust is then led up the stack. Before actually entering the boiler the feed-water passes through a number of tubes in the smoke-box. It is supposed that this arrangement gives a saving in coal con-sumption of over 20 per cent. Whether the complication is worth this saving depends, among other things, upon the price of coal.

MONEY AND SHARE MARKET.

(FROM OUR FINANCIAL CORRESPONDENT).

May, 24 1907 The Money Market. There is some slight tightening of the market for cash supplies, which is, however, of a quite temporary character. The statistics which we quote below give no grounds for supposing that there will be any stringency of gold for some time to come. The position generally is a strong one, and thoughts are beginning to turn rather to the possibility of a change of affairs in the Autumn, it not being considered likely that any special drain of gold will take place during the summer months. Should the strikes on the Rand have the effect of reducing production, this might have a serious aspect, but it would appear as if the mine-owners were quite content to take the chance which the strike affords of eliminating the undesirable workers, and taking on new and better hands, of which there appears to be an abundant supply. It is not thought, therefore, that any serious interruption of the work of the mines will take place. Some trouble there may be, owing to the strikers being superseded, and the Government of the Transvaal, having realised this, are taking strong measures to deal with any disturbances that may arise.

This week's Bank return shows that a further £90,000 has been added to the reserve, which now stands at £24,680,000, as compared with £23,187,000 twelve months ago. Notwithstanding Whitsuntide requirements, the stock of coin and bullion is higher by £193,000 but this is doubtless explained by the recept of £306,000 in gold from abroad. Securities are up £272,000, and Public Deposits show an increase of £1,429,000. The Proportion of Reserve to liabilities now stands at 46.83 per cent. as against 44 per cent. last year.

The larger proportion of the gold which has arrived from Africa and elsewhere has been bought by the Bank of England, and although France has been a competitor, the amount secured for our neighbours has been small. Bar gold is now quoted at 77/10 per ounce standard.

Three months' bank bills are being done at 3 3/8 per cent.

Silver.

The tone of the silver market is very firm, and the price of bar silver has further advanced to 30 7/8 per ounce.

The Stock Markets.
So far from the Whitsuntide holiday having given a fillip to investment business, as it was hoped might be the case, the tone of markets has this week been even more depressed than ever. A feeling of extreme pessimism prevails in nearly all sections, and business has been reduced to the smallest possible limits. Needless to say prices have continued a downward course owing to the lack of support. Of course this unhappy state of thing is the result of indifference on the part of the public rather than of any specific adverse influence, but the constant declines in values is too serious for holders to be comforted by this fact,

Telegrams received from Egypt show a more or less demoralised state of affairs in the stock markets in Cairo and Alexandria. The artificial remedies proposed, and more or less carried out, to prevent undue depreciation are not believed in here. At the same time, it is admitted that in a local market such remedies may be of temporary use, as indeed, they appear to have been. One cause of the accentuation of the slump which has taken place in Egypt is undoubtedly the small-ness of the market here for Egyptian securities. We have repeatedly pointed out how short sighted was the policy of those responsible for flotations of Egyptian companies in not allot-ting a larger number of shares to European applicants, and thus broadening the basis o Egyptian share finance. A certain number of shares ot every company should be reserved for applicants in this country. Had this been done, and the large initial profits made, been shared with the markets here, there would have been a sufficient number of investors interested to create a freer market for the shares when the depreciation occurred. By following a greedy policy these companies have deprived the British public of the fair share of the profits arising from the premium to which the shares went, and it cannot be a matter of surprise that the London Stock Exchange has a languid interest in things Egyptian. To broaden the basis of Egyptian markets is an absolute necessity, and we commend this matter earnestly to the attention of those large brokers and financial houses who have to deal, with it, The tendency to supersede London boards and place the entire management of Egyptian companies in the hands of local boards. while it may appear to be a commonsense arrangement, is in reality a very short-sighted policy. After all, Egypt in its time of development is dependent upon foreign capital, and everything that tends to give confidence to the foreign investor should be carefully preserved. London boards may not be able to superintend efficiently the management, which should be in the hands of strong local directors, but to have a number of men of honourable reputation here to answer for the honest and efficient conduct of the company generally is an important guarantee to the British investor. The truth of it is that in Egypt so much money has recently been made that financiers there have a feeling that they can look after their own affairs, forgetting that, after all, they cannot begin to finance themselves without the assistance of older countries with large accu-mulated capital and that in bad times the help of another market is essential.

Consols.

Gilt-edged securities are extremely depressed, and yesterday Consols were marked down to 84½ for money and 84. 9/16 for the account, although at the close they were firmer at 84, 11/16 and 84½, thus showing a loss on the day

Foreign Bonds,

Dullness reigns in the international market, Paris having been a rather heavy seller, Russians after being firm at the opening on Tuesday, have since gone back, and the Pives are now quoted 83½ the Fours being down to 742. Japanese have been irregular with slight declines in two or three of the stocks.

Home Ralle.

The market for home railway shares has been quite demoralised since our last, and it is almost impossible to negotiate new business. Yesterday the feature was a slump in Brighton shares, which was due to a rumour that the company intended to issue new capital. At one time the Deferred fell to 85½ after opening at 89½, but after the publication of a semi-official denial of the report above referred to the price rallied to 87. The Ordinary dropped 3 to 109. Under the influence of Brighton stocks other Southern shares were also weak. To-day a further fall has occurred in Brighton Deferred, which close at 86½. Other shares are ‡ to ‡.

Americane.
The general tendency of American shares has been downward, two adverse influences being the rise in the price of wheat, and heavy selling of Pacific issues from New York. On Wednesday Northern Pacific dropped 4 points

Wednesday Northern Pacific dropped 4 points to 124 and Unions 3<sup>2</sup>/<sub>4</sub> to 138. Yesterday the opening was rather firmer on overnight advices, but lack of support from Wall St. in the afternoon caused a further setoack, Northern Pacific and Unions were further marked down 3 and 12 respectively, while Chesapeake and Ohio and Milwaukee shed 11.

There has been little doing in Americans to-day. Union Pacific ord. are unchanged, but the preference are higher at 88.

Egyptians.

The Egyptian share market has fluctuated very wildly during the last few days, and at one time it looked like breaking badly. The shares on offer were, however, taken at the low prices, and have gradually recovered; the closing tone being firmer all-round.

National Bank of Egypt were offered down to 21, but have now risen to 221-3. Agricul-tural Bank have been as low as 8,3/16, but a large line of shares were taken at this price, and at 8½, and buying continued steadily at rising prices, the quotation being to night 8½. The Preference are nominally 9½. Daira, after being offered at 14½, close at 15½. Egyptian Estates are better at 1 5/16-7/16, after having been down to 15-1. Delta Land and Investment are also up to 21-1. Delta Preference Bearer had a nasty slump to 91, but all shares offering at this price were well taken. The closing price is 9½-10. New Egyptian have The closing price is $2.10. New Egyptian nave changed hands at 18/6, and Corporation of Western Egypt are quoted $\frac{1}{2}$. Union Fonciere at $\frac{1}{4}$, and Land Bank at $7\frac{1}{8}$ are easier. Comp-toir Financier are flat and close nominally 83-41. Egyptian Markets at 1,5/16 and Salt and Soda at 1 are quite unchanged.

Mining.

The strike of miners on the Rand, with resulting fears that the trouble would spread, has adversely affected mining shares, although the real cause of the weakness of the market is the absence of assistance on the part of investors. There has been a great deal of liquidation, and the future is regarded with anything but cheerfulness.
